

A record of your child's days, shared between two homes.

For parents who share time and want to share in their children's days. Log a meal, a nap, a mood or a dose in a few taps. At the end of your days, your handoff summary goes to the other home automatically, with anything you want to add. One calendar built from your custody schedule. No more text threads to manage or comb through.

Free for one child

One subscription covers both parents: $9.99 a month or $79.99 a year for the family.

iPhone: App Store → your picture → Redeem Gift Card or Code. Android: Play Store → your picture → Payments & subscriptions → Redeem code. One code per family; it renews after three months unless cancelled in your store account.
